PERFORMANCE SHIELD SUNGLASSES: PROTECTION, VERSATILITY AND STYLE

Sport moves and identifies us. We want to inspire and allow all athletes to be and stay more active and motivated at any level.

Sport helps athletes improve their performance to join and stay in sport, to raise their performance, to better themselves and society.

The adidas Sport Eyewear collection reflects this same promise. Designed to optimize results, riding or running on any terrain, offering the best comfort, these styles are the perfect combination of style and high technology to achieve the top results.

The new frame is available at adidaseyewear.com and selected opticians.

These new PERFORMANCE shield sunglasses help you stay focused and cool riding or running on any terrain. The super-lightweight and flexible TR-90 wrap frame offers the maximum protection, while the new HDC lenses highlight colors and contrasts to improve performance and safety in various light conditions.

The adjustable nose pads and flexible temples with the rubber on the inside ensure exceptional comfort, maximum grip, and superior performance, whatever the sport. The style is also available with the new optimized polar lenses that reduce glare and provide a sharp view of all electronic devices.
