SWAROVSKI EYEWEAR: CONSTELLA-INSPIRED DESIGNS REFLECT THE WONDER OF THE COSMOS

Swarovski Eyewear presents a new line of sunglasses inspired by the brand's Constella family of jewelry to enrich a world lived in crystal.

Precision-cut Swarovski Crystals as radiant as stars are set within metallic frames that give the appearance of wearable constellations. In line with their corresponding Swarovski jewelry family, these eyewear pieces channel geometry and the wonder of the cosmos into modern styling accessories for everyday wear.

The range, produced by Marcolin, is available in stores and online at swarovski.com

SWAROVSKI

Swarovski is a Wonderlab where magic and science meet. Swarovski unifies all parts of its organization under one spellbinding idea and brings forward a wondrous new world of crystal craftsmanship. Founded in 1895 in Austria, the company designs, manufactures and sells the world's highest quality crystal, gemstones, Swarovski Created Diamonds and zirconia, jewelry and accessories, as well as crystal objects and home accessories. Together with its sister companies Swarovski Optik (optical devices) and Tyrolit (abrasives), Swarovski Crystal Business forms the Swarovski Group. A responsible relationship with people and the planet has always been an integral part of Swarovski's heritage. This manifests today in the company's well-established sustainability agenda with youth-focused education programs and foundations to promote human empowerment and conserve natural resources to achieve positive social impact.

CONSTELLA, SK0376

The striking design of these sunglasses is inspired by the cosmos and strings of constellations in the night sky. Crystals, set in unexpected placements, contrast sleek metallic lines in oversized frames, while the temples feature gold-plated metal accented with brilliant cut stones in prong settings. This style is a work of art able to enhance self-expression and personality.
