TIMBERCLIP™:
A FAST WAY TO SWITCH OPTICAL
FRAMES INTO SUNGLASSES

With their convenient and secure mechanism, Timberclip™ by Timberland clip-on shades let you easily transform your optical frames into elegant, comfortable sunglasses.

Made with polarized lenses, the clip-on sunglasses effortlessly and firmly attach to the corners of the frame front with sturdy magnets. The Timberclip™ clip on shades is the utmost in versatility, turning your everyday prescription frame into the perfect accessory that help to protect the eyes from the sun in any condition.

Timberclip™ frames stand out for their use of high-quality technical materials. These frames are marked by the Earthkeepers™ symbol, certifying that they are made with at least 65% bio-based plastic.

The two Timberclip™ styles, which come in trendy colors and are currently available in select optical shops, are designed for active people who choose to live responsibly.

Responsibility and sustainability are two cornerstones of the partnership that unites Timberland and Marcolin, which produces and distributes Timberland eyewear collections. Their project promoted by the web platform Treedom is committed to planting forests around the world with environmental and social benefits to make our planet greener.
