MAX&Co. EYEWEAR PRESENTA UN MODELLO SPECIALE PER “PEOPLE, PLACES, COLOUR” IN COLLABORAZIONE CON DURO OLOWU

Memory and vision meet in the original sunglasses that Max&Co. Eyewear co-created with Duro Olowu, the British designer of Nigerian origin, for the new &Co.laboration capsule collection named “People, Places, Colour”.

Charming global inspirations animate the silhouette with a contemporary design, creating a style that seems to travel through time. The frame with a dynamic cut is warmed by motifs that reproduce original prints of clothes with a precious identity.

An eclectic frame in a special edition, it comes in a case with an exclusive pattern designed for MAX&Co. by fashion designer Duro Olowu.

Sunglasses with a futuristic shape and Bamako pattern. The oval lens is inserted in the frame front with distinctive geometric lines. The injected plastic frame features an exclusive Bamako pattern that recalls the prints of several of the most iconic garments from the fashion capsule collection designed by Duro Olowu for MAX&Co. Shapes and patterns blend perfectly in these sunglasses with a great aesthetic impact.
