SOPHISTICATED AND SIGNATURE: NEW WRAPAROUND STYLES FROM TOM FORD EYEWEAR

TOM FORD's new, luxe wraparound sunglasses are among the Eyewear collection's boldest statements. Overall, the styles share a sense of drama, radiating "notice me" allure. Yet each design does so with its own highly distinctive look.

A narrow front and thick temples characterize the Corey frame. Its size and horizontal silhouette allude to 1970s cool while retaining a fully contemporary attitude.

The Brianna women's sunglass style flaunts audacious vintage charm. The demonstrative, 1950s cat-eye shape curves into modernity with wide, chunky temples for a witty take on chic.

The Clint-02 unisex frame features an injected plastic mask with thin rims and the brand's iconic metal T at the temple. That combination telegraphs both power and restraint, the essence of urbane style.

TOM FORD Eyewear is designed, produced, and distributed worldwide by Marcolin and is sold at selected opticians and Tom Ford boutiques.
