

MARCOLIN

MAX&Co.

The new glasses of the MAX&Co. eyewear collection combine color and design, always keeping up with the latest trends.

This season's trends favor eyewear that stands out for its brilliant young look. The refined, light design of the metal frames, the fronts enhanced by the colored enamels, and the shine of precious studs on the whole rim are in fact the stylistic elements that define the new MAX&Co. sunglasses and optical styles with a strong personality.

Produced and distributed by Marcolin, the eyewear will be available starting September in MAX&Co. boutiques and selected opticians.

SUNGLASSES

MO0091

Brightness, charm, and character emerge in these sunglasses with a brand-new front dotted with small studs embellishing the frame. The slim metal structure is enhanced by vivacious colors animating the lenses and temple tips with unmistakable appeal and a shape that recalls the DOT of the logo.

OPTICAL STYLE

MO5122

Frame that renews a classically inspired shape with a contemporary design and details. Cuts and curves transform a cat-eye shape into geometric eyeglasses with a young, trendy look. Small studs illuminate the innovative colored front, matching the tips of the temples constructed with different lines and volumes.
